

Seminararian Lemar Barbosa

My discernment to go into seminary started in my last year of college.

My home pastor, who saw me go to daily Mass and pray often, encouraged me to seriously discern my vocation.

I then prayed about it in adoration and realized that I would regret it if I did not at least apply to the seminary.

Soon after, I applied, got accepted, and knew it was God's will for me to discern the priesthood further as a seminarian.

Outside of my studies and ministry, I enjoy music and working out.

Above all, I am grateful for the many people God has placed along my journey and seek to respond faithfully to the Lord's call to serve His Church.
